Many of the images represent more to me than just what they appear to be on the surface - and I've already achieved a lot of the things that appear in this book, hence the fact that I have since created new ones.

This is just one of many ideas for your project.

For instance, now I tend to create 'mind movies' (a video made of various images, photos, etc, with music).

You can get really creative - or simply put it all in a list.

The choice is yours - this is your life you are designing!
